

Fraud Warning

Astramaris Shipping Europe GmbH wishes to alert all clients, partners, and stakeholders about ongoing fraudulent activities involving the misuse of our company's name, branding, and identity. We have become aware of unauthorized individuals or organizations claiming to represent Astramaris Shipping Europe GmbH, often using fake email addresses, social media profiles, or websites.

These fraudulent parties may attempt to solicit payments, offer employment, request confidential information, or present false shipping documents. Please be advised that Astramaris Shipping Europe GmbH only communicates through official channels and verified company domains ending in @astramarisshipping.com. We never request financial transactions or personal information through unofficial emails or messaging apps.

If you receive any suspicious communication or documentation claiming to be from Astramaris Shipping Europe GmbH, please verify its authenticity by contacting us directly through our official website or via email at info@astramarisshipping.com. Do not respond to or engage with the sender until you have confirmed the legitimacy of the correspondence.

We are actively monitoring and reporting fraudulent activities to relevant authorities. Astramaris Shipping Europe GmbH will not be held liable for any loss or damage resulting from interactions with unauthorized individuals or entities falsely claiming to represent our company.

We strongly advise all business partners, clients, and the general public to remain vigilant. Your safety and trust are of utmost importance to us.
